

INTERNATIONAL AWARDS
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY
IN DERMATOLOGY
BY L'ORÉAL

CARING to INSPIRE SKIN CONFIDENCE

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

International Awards for Social Responsibility in Dermatology to be held at the World Congress of Dermatology 2015 in Vancouver, Canada, on 8–13 June.

Patients with dermatological conditions may frequently face discrimination and feel socially excluded.

L'Oréal is proud to support the development of dermatologists' initiatives worldwide that improve patients' physical and psychological health and self-esteem, independently from their medical treatment, enabling them to re-engage socially.

WHO'S ELIGIBLE?

These awards are aimed at all voluntary initiatives run by dermatologists in three main areas:

- Educating patients and providing support for preventing dermatological conditions
- Improving the physical and psychological quality of life and self-esteem of those affected
- Providing patients with better access to care, coverage and surgery

INTERESTED IN APPLYING?

Are you a dermatologist working independently or with an organisation, involved in a volunteering initiative, which provides support for patients in your community?

If so, please submit your application here: www.inspireskinconfidence.com
Or scan the QR code and access the website directly.

Closing date for applications: Friday 06 March 2015
Winners will be notified: Thursday 30 April 2015
