

Kedvezményes kongresszusi regisztráció a 2022. májusi EADV Spring Symposium-ra

Forrás: <https://eadvsymposium2022.org/scholarships/reduced-fee/>

ABOUT

The European Academy of Dermatology and Venereology gives 100 people the opportunity to register for the EADV Spring Symposium 2022 at a special rate.

This special offer applies to dermatologists, venereologists, students, trainees, EADV members, non-members, etc. who are not otherwise supported to attend the above-mentioned meeting.

The 100 places available are divided in 2 contingents:

- 50 places reserved to the participants applying from a Low- and Middle Economy Country
- 50 places open to applicants from all the other countries of the world

Please kindly find online the Low- and Middle Countries list according to the World Bank classification

The Reduced Registration Fee Ticket price vary depending on the contingent selected:

Reduced Registration Fee – General public 100 EUR, 50 places

Reduced Registration Fee – Low- and Middle-income economies countries 80 EUR, 50 places

Application deadline: 27 April 2022 at 00:00 CEST,

For any issues or questions please contact us at reducedfee@eadv.org

APPLY NOW

MANDATORY CRITERIA

- The cost of the Reduced Registration Fee (RRF) is EUR 100 for general public and EUR 80 for applicants from Low- and Middle Economies Countries and covers the full registration to the event (Full Congress Ticket).
- Non-members can apply for a RRF, but only once. In order to be eligible to receive it again, they need to apply for an EADV membership from the ongoing year.
- EADV active members (the membership due for 2022 has to be settled before applying for a RRF) are eligible for a RRF on more than one occasion: up to three times without submitting an abstract and more than three times by submitting an abstract. However:
 1. A RRF applicant is not eligible for one event after the other. This means, for example, that a participant registered as RRF Winner for the 30th EADV Virtual Congress 2021 is not eligible;
 2. A candidate applying for more than one grant (e.g. EADV Scholarship, etc.) can be selected only once within the same EADV Congress or Symposium. In addition, a candidate finalising (paying) a RRF can no longer be awarded with another grant for the same event and, therefore, any other application submitted will be automatically cancelled;
 3. Applicants finalising (paying) a regular registration before applying for a RRF cannot be taken into consideration for a RRF for the same event, since no refund is possible;
- A personal motivation letter in English (5-10 sentences), specifying what are the reasons that are motivating you to attend the event, has to be submitted in order to validate the RRF application.
- Only one application per person might be submitted;
- Block bookings will receive no consideration;
- RRF for successful applicants cannot be paid (sponsored) or managed by companies, institutions, travel agencies or any other Third-Party. In that case, a successful RRF applicant will lose the benefit of the lower registration fee;
- RRF applications must be received strictly by the closing date (deadline published on the website): any late RRF application will not be considered;
- The selection of any eligible RRF application is based on a first come (paid) / first served basis. This means that the available contingent might be sold out before the published deadlines. Please allow sufficient time in order to submit your RRF application;
 - The notification of a successful or unsuccessful application will be provided within 10 working days.